

Te Wai Māori - New Zealand Freshwater Sciences Society Rōpū Māori

Terms of Reference

Whakakitenga/Vision

To Māori, freshwater is a taonga and tangata Māori are the kaitiaki (guardians). The concept of Te Mana o Te Wai reflects the recognition of fresh water as a natural resource whose health is integral to the social, cultural, economic and environmental well-being of communities. The vision of the New Zealand Freshwater Sciences Society Rōpū Māori (hereafter Rōpū Māori) is the successful participation of Māori in freshwater sciences, management and research where Māori principles, values and interests are identified and valued within the New Zealand Freshwater Sciences Society (NZFSS).

Whakataukī/Proverb

Mō wai, mōu māori mā – Water for all

Whāinga/Purpose

The purposes of the Rōpū Māori are to:

- Provide a support network for Māori freshwater scientists, researchers, and students, including mentoring and identifying research scholarship opportunities for emerging Māori scientists, researchers, and students
- To support and advise the NZFSS executive committee on Te Ao Māori worldview and appropriate kawa and tikanga
- Develop and foster partnerships with indigenous freshwater organisations, scientists, researchers, and students internationally
- Be a point of contact for iwi, hapū and the wider community interested in freshwater sciences, management and research from a Māori perspective

Tukunga/Methods

The NZFSS Rōpū Māori uses the following methods to address their Purpose:

- Grow the Rōpū Māori by publicising the group and recruiting members interested in Wai Māori
- Establishment of a database of Māori freshwater scientists, researchers, and students
- Annual kanohi ki te kanohi (face to face) meetings and regular email communications
- Dissemination of research and potential funding opportunities to Māori organisations and groups
- Establish and maintain a social media profile for the Rōpū Māori
- Seek funding and sponsorship to allow for the participation of Māori delegates (iwi, hapū) and students at NZFSS conferences
- Contribute to the annual NZFSS newsletter

Kawenga mema/ Roles and responsibilities of members

The NZFSS Rōpū Māori is open to past and present NZFSS members and conference attendees who identify as Māori, as well as those who support, work or associate with Māori on freshwater. When joining the Rōpū Māori a confirmation email will be sent to the new member by a Rōpū Māori representative via maori.fwss@gmail.com (i.e., Yvonne Taura or Brett Cockeram). Rōpū Māori members are expected to support the purposes of the Rōpū Māori.

Kawenga māngai/Roles and responsibilities of representatives

The Rōpū Māori representatives on the NZFSS executive shall be comprised of no more than two senior members (currently Ian Kusabs and Joanne Clapcott) and two representative members (currently Yvonne Taura and Brett Cockeram), with a minimum 2-year term. The representatives of the Rōpū Māori are expected to:

- Attend scheduled NZFSS executive and Rōpū Māori meetings
- Champion the Rōpū Māori and the opinions and whakaaro of the Rōpū Māori members
- Share information and notify Rōpū Māori Members of relevant matters in a timely manner
- Advocate and ensure that a collective Māori voice is heard on the NZFSS executive

Hui/Meeting Schedule

The Rōpū Māori will meet kanohi ki te kanohi once a year during the NZFSS annual conference. The meetings will be chaired by the senior Rōpū Māori Representatives (currently Ian Kusabs and Joanne Clapcott). Decisions will be made by consensus (i.e. members are satisfied with the decision even though it may not be their first choice). A meeting quorum will be (6) members of the Rōpū Māori. Other communication may occur via email (or equivalent) between meetings.

The Rōpū Māori representatives will meet bi-monthly, by kanohi ki te kanohi, telephone or video conferencing. A meeting quorum will be (3) Rōpū Māori representatives.

All meeting agendas and minutes will be provided by Rōpū Māori representatives (currently Yvonne Taura or Brett Cockeram), including preparation of agendas, supporting papers, and meeting notes.

Whakarerekētanga/Amendment, modification or variation

This Terms of Reference may be amended, varied or modified in writing after consultation and agreement by Rōpū Māori members. The ToR will be reviewed by February 2020.
